

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Tullytown Borough Council will meet at the Tullytown Borough Building, located at 500 Main Street, Tullytown, PA on Tuesday, September 4, 2018 at 7:00 p.m., and will, at that time, hold a public hearing to inform and obtain public comment prior to taking any action, and if appropriate after the public hearing to vote to adopt, an ordinance providing for appropriation and expenditures of improved property to encourage the aesthetic appearance and economic growth of Tullytown Borough for the year 2018. The ordinance appropriates Six Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($6,000.00) for the year 2018 to each owner of an improved lot, with no parcel receiving more than one payment in the case of multiple property owners. The ordinance provides that parcels subject to enforcement action under Chapter 126 of the Code of Ordinances of Tullytown Borough shall not receive an appropriation. The ordinance provides that an appropriation shall be reduced by any amount Tullytown Borough may have been required to expend in 2018 to maintain a property.

Upon consideration of public comments and conclusion of the public hearing, the Tullytown Borough Council may act to adopt the ordinance described above at its regularly scheduled public meeting immediately following the hearing or at another public meeting held thereafter. A complete copy of the proposed ordinance is available for copying and examination by the public at the Tullytown Borough municipal building, 500 Main Street, Tullytown, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, the office of this publication and the Bucks County Law Library, Doylestown, during regular business hours.
